4.2.5

1. Library OPAC Facility

The Central Library is equipped with an Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) system, which allows users to efficiently search for and locate books within the library's extensive collection. This user-friendly interface enables students and faculty to browse titles, authors, and subjects from anywhere within the library, streamlining the research process. The OPAC system enhances the library experience by making it easier for users to navigate the wealth of resources at their disposal, fostering a more efficient and effective learning environment.

2. Grammarly

The university provides access to Grammarly for both staff and students, offering an invaluable resource to enhance writing skills across the campus community. This advanced writing assistant aids users in identifying and correcting grammar, punctuation, and style errors, ensuring clear and effective communication in academic and professional contexts. Grammarly supports users in producing polished essays, reports, and emails. By integrating this tool into their writing processes, students and staff can improve their confidence and competence in writing, ultimately fostering a culture of excellence in communication throughout the university.
