1.0 GBPS INTERNET FACILITY

Our university benefits from a high-speed 1.0 GBPS internet leased line facility provided by the National Knowledge Network (NKN), significantly enhancing the digital experience for students and faculty alike. This robust internet connectivity supports a wide range of administrative e-governance and academic activities, from seamless online research and collaboration to high-quality video conferencing and digital learning platforms. With such speed, users can effortlessly access vast repositories of knowledge, engage in virtual classrooms, and participate in global academic discussions. This state-of-the-art infrastructure not only fosters an environment of innovation and exploration but also prepares our university community to thrive in an increasingly digital world.
